

Students Receive Honors

Brandon Ledford was recently accepted as a People to People student ambassador. This program allows students to experience other cultures from an educational and social viewpoint. Brandon will be traveling to Japan in the spring of 2010.

Nathaniel Klages' artwork was included in a national magazine. Nathaniel's pictures of horses were featured in the March/April and November/December issues of "Just About Horses".

Kayley Moore was named Young Woman of the Year in the Cowee Community. The award is sponsored by the Macon county Community Development Council.

Art 114 Class Projects

Zach Kirkland created an all natural piece of art reflecting the early Cherokee era. His materials included, rabbit fur, sticks, cranberries, and blueberries.
